No. C.4338-2, 25. 2. 1929

Recommends that a new rule may be added to the Mysore jail manual to the effect that the Superintendent of the jail may, at his discretion receive and distribute to well behaved prisoners on festive occasions small luxuries offered by any religious or charitable bodies or individual, similar to the rule that exists in the Madras Presidency, and that the Superintendent, Central jail, may be permitted to allow this privilege to the Mahomedan prisoners in the jail during the ensuing Ramzan festival.

Read:— The new rule proposed may perhaps, be added as clause (4) to rule 268 of the Mysore jail manual (part I). Copy of the jail manual is put up for reference.

2) For orders. The Ramzan festival is said to commence on 7.2.29 or 8.2.29 inst.

3) The intention of the proposed rule is to provide food at unusual hours to Mahamedan convicts who observe Ramzan; it is not known if the proposed rule will also cover the case of [illegible] Please see rule 268 Jail Ma

6) The amendment proposed by the S.C.B. provides for the distribution by the Supdt of small luxuries in the shape of fruits and sweetmeats to well-behaved prisoners on festival occasions. This is entirely different from what is urged by the petitioner, namely, grant of permission to feed the poor mahomed convicts during the month of Ramzan at unusual hours – 3 a.m. and 6.45 p.m. It may not be possible for the jail authorities to arrange for supervision of feeding at these hours. The existing provisions of the Jail Manual (Article 268-3) seem to be adequate to safeguard the interests of Mohamedan convicts who may be desirous of having their food distributed at particular hours to enable them to observe a religious fast. It may not be desirable to allow an outsider to distribute food to prisoners at unusual hours.
